Code of ethics for members of ADDE

- Our objective is to supply high quality products and services in the mutual interest of our customers and ourselves.
- We are committed to creating a fair relationship with our customers and our partners based on trust and mutual satisfaction.
- We will treat our customers and our partners with respect and will not behave in a manner that could undermine the trust that exists between us
- We will endeavour to deal honestly and transparently in our business activities and in matters of bidding and pricing. We recognise the importance of fair competition and we do not condone any activity that interferes with the dental marketplace.
- We comply with national and international law and conform to existing regulations with regard to all of our business activities.
